Mr. Miller further stated that the underlying cases the division refers to the State Attorney’s Office may stem from unlicensed activity; however subsequent investigation may result in grand theft charges which carry significantly greater penalties.

Mr. Asbell responded that the Commissioners may establish guidelines for the initial review process as to which applicants the department may approve versus those that require Commission review and consideration for approval.

Legality of Paying Commission to Unlicensed Assistants for Services Outside Scope of Real Estate Practice

Pursuant to Chairman Hogan’s inquiry, FREC Counsel, Gary Asbell, reported that Section 475.01, Florida Statutes, broadly defines what duties require a real estate license. Mr. Asbell stated a determination must be made as to whether the services provided fall under the definition of practice; if so, whether the practice falls under the exemption; if not a licensee could be aiding assisting or abetting unlicensed activity regardless of how the unlicensed person is being paid.
Rulemaking Authority for Listing Tasks Unlicensed Assistants Can and Cannot Perform

FREC Counsel Asbell stated he was unable to find the specific authority. Mr. Asbell stated that under Section 475.04, Florida Statutes, there may be authority to put this type of information in an educational program, however, was not certain this section authorizes rulemaking. Chairman Hogan requested this topic be added to the list of subheadings established at the Education & Research Foundation taskforce meeting which was held March 13, 2006. Mr. Asbell further stated that without seeing a list, he would certainly not advise the Commission to provide an approval.

Rule Development Workshop – Rule 61J2-3.009

FREC Counsel Asbell requested the Commission consider amending Rule 61J2-3.009, Florida Administrative Code, to include language requiring the 3-hour core law course, as the current rule language does not specifically state the licensee must complete this requirement. Commissioner Varnado moved to amend the rule with the recommended changes and move forward with rulemaking. Commissioner Hornsleth seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously.

Proposed Rulemaking – 61J2-24.003

FREC Counsel Asbell reported the FREC adopted and approved changes to 61J2-24.003 in September 15, 2003. Mr. Asbell stated the rule was filed for adoption, however, the circumstances did not allow the Joint Administrative Procedures Committee to adopt the rule. Mr. Asbell stated should the Commission desire these changes be made to the rule the Commission must make another vote. Commissioner Hornsleth moved to adopt the language as the Commission approved and adopted previously. Vice-Chairman Ellis seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously.

Discussion of Rule 61J2-10.028

The Commission debated this rule length. FREC Counsel Asbell suggested the Commission authorize noticing a workshop to discuss possible amendments, which would allow input from all interested parties. Commissioner Varnado moved to authorize publishing Rule 61J2-10.028 for proposed rule development. Commissioner Hornsleth seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously.
